

S = Some situation

A = A likely follow up word

B = An unlikely follow up word

U = Context logically implying that B is correct answer, and that A is wrong

U. S (A, B1, B2,...)

!U. S (A, B1, B2,...)

Experiment 1

Easy: (literally uses the word)

Amelia went to the burger shop to buy a (burger, pizza).

Amelia only likes the burger shop's pizza. Amelia went to the burger shop to buy a (burger, pizza).

Deandre started playing music on his (piano, flute).

Deandre is a flutist. Deandre started playing music on his (piano, flute).

Mark exercises at his (gym, home).

Mark works out at home. Mark exercises at his (gym, home).

Picking out what to wear, Nicole wore a (shirt, poncho).

Nicole really likes her poncho. Picking out what to wear, Nicole wore a (shirt, poncho).

The night sky had a lot of (stars, fireworks).

Tonight is the firework show. The night sky had a lot of (stars, fireworks).

Elena baked a cake with her (oven, microwave).

With limited funding for home appliances, Elena could only afford a microwave. Elena baked a cake with her (oven, microwave).

Medium: (directly and obviously implying an option without using the word).

Amelia went to the burger shop to buy a (burger, pizza).

Amelia only likes the burger shop's Italian food. Amelia went to the burger shop to buy a (burger, pizza).

Deandre started playing music on his (piano, flute).

Deandre only plays wind instruments. Deandre started playing music on his (piano, flute).

Mark exercises at his (gym, home).

Mark hates going outside. Mark exercises at his (gym, home).

Picking out what to wear, Nicole wore a (shirt, poncho).

It is raining. Picking out what to wear, Nicole wore a (shirt, poncho).

The night sky had a lot of (stars, fireworks).

Tonight is the Fourth of July. The night sky had a lot of (stars, fireworks).

Elena baked a cake with her (oven, microwave).

Elena did not have time to preheat. Elena baked a cake with her (oven, microwave).

Experiment 2

Hard: (generally implying the B options with deeper logical connections)

Sally drinks her coffee with (sugar, lemons, limes)

Sally likes coffee that is sour. Sally drinks her coffee with (sugar, lemons, limes)

Mark pulled out a nail using a (hammer, fork, spoon)

Mark is in the kitchen because he lost his toolbox. Mark pulled out a nail using a (hammer, fork, spoon)

Anthony's only pet is a (dog, turtle, lizard).

Anthony bought a reptile terrarium today. Anthony's only pet is a (dog, turtle, lizard).

Derrick's mode of transportation to work is a (car, scooter, skateboard).

Derrick travels exclusively on the sidewalk or bike lane. Derrick's mode of transportation to work is a (car, scooter, skateboard).